JAGRUTI'19, AN ALL INDIA YOUTH CONFERENCE

"Theme: Sustainable Rural Habitat"

"The future of India lies in its villages" - M. K. Gandhi

Commemorating the 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, Indian Institute of Science Bengaluru has announced to host an All India Youth conference, Jagruti'19 on 12 & 13 January 2019 at Indian Institute of Science. The conference will be organised by the Students' Council, Indian Institute of Science (IISc) and Think India.

The theme of this year's conference is 'Sustainable Rural Habitat - Returning to Our Roots'. 'Jagruti'19' intends to serve platform for the youth of India who feels responsible to converge and pay heed on rural issues and secure our ideals. The central idea of the conference is to reminisce Gandhi's motif of Gram Swaraj and its congruity through the sustainable rural habitat. Being solution-oriented Jagruti'19 invites original, innovative and thought-provoking ideas from across India towards understanding rural India and identifying the ways through which the Sustainable Rural Livelihood can be achieved. The conference aims to discuss the current situation, achievements, challenges, opportunities and advancements concerning rural India. With the announcement of the conference, we would like to invite the students from all across India to participate in the national level competitions; paper presentation, model presentation, documentary presentation and street play. The cash prizes (along with memento and certificate) for the aforementioned four nationwide competitions are the following:

First Prize: INR 20,000/-

Second Prize: INR 15,000/-

Third Prize: INR 10,000/-

The conference will be a home for two days for the heroes who have been received many accolades nationally and internationally for their efforts, ideas and spirit for transforming the rural livelihood in a very significant manner. You will also get the opportunity to mingle and interact with the extraordinary thinkers, experts and intellectuals who will mesmerise you with their perspectives, views, knowledge and experience. Along with the nationwide competitions and thought-provoking discussions, the 'Jagruti'19' introduces the "Young Achievers Award" to the people within the age of 35 years who have been working on rural development extraordinarily. To motivate the youth of India for stepping towards the 'Sustainable Rural Habitat' we will honour a few "Role Models" also.

Your presence as a contestant or an attendee at the All India Youth Conference, 'Jagruti'19' will be much appreciated. Let us come together for our future's sustainable rural habitat and return to our roots for making India better.
